“ I got to know Adam quite well when I worked at area video stores. He was one of the nicest people I met in my years of working with the public. My condolences to his family. I know he will be missed by everyone who knew him.

“ I knew Adam from work at Milestone inc. He and I were float supervisors together. We were also in the scouts together. Adam was one of the most kindest men I ever met. He enjoyed making people laugh. I remember the big smile Adam had on his face when his singers sang the National Anthem before the Rockford ice hogs game. He was like a proud father that night. Adam your job is done here go sit next to the Lord in the place He has prepared for you. We will meet again my friend. So rest in peace you deserve it my friend. God bless your family.

“ Machelle and Lauren, I was reading the past week's papers on Tuesday evening, and was stunned to read of Adam's premature death. My heart is aching for you. But I know that his love of the Lord and his faith in the Savior were primary in his heart, and he blessed everyone around him with that spirit of love. My memories of Adam are all good; please accept our heartfelt condolences. God be with you both, to comfort and strengthen you in the years ahead.
