“ I thought of you and closed my eyes
And prayed to God today.
I asked what makes a Mother
And I know I heard him say...

A mother has a baby
This we know is true.
But, God, can you be a mother
when your baby is not with you?

Yes, you can He replied,
With confidence in His voice.
I give many women babies
When they leave is not their choice.

Some I send for a lifetime,
And others just for a day.
And some I send to feel your womb,
But there's no need to stay.

I just don't understand this God,
I want my baby here.
He took a breath and cleared His throat
And then I saw a tear.

I wish I could show you
What your child is doing today.
If you could see your child smile
With other children and say:

"We go to earth to learn our lessons
Of love and life and fear.
My mommy loved me oh so much
I got to come straight here.

I feel so lucky to have a mom

*Who has so much love for me.
I learned my lessons very quickly,
My mommy set me free.*

*I miss my mommy Oh so much,
But I visit every day.
When she goes to sleep
On her pillow is where I lay.*

*I stroke her hair and kiss her cheek
And I whisper in her ear.
Mommy don't be sad today,
I'm your baby and I'm here."*

*So, you see my dear sweet one,
Your children are not blue.
Your babies are here in MY home,
They'll be at Heaven's gate waiting for you.*

*So now you see what makes a mother,
It's the feeling in your heart.
It's the love you had so much of,
Right from the very start.*

*Though some on earth may not realize you are a mother,
Until their time is done.
They'll be up here with Me one day,
And they'll know you were the best one!*

Love to you both; Sara, Josh, Christopher, Nathan, and Haley

“ So many caring and sincere words of sympathy and love have been expressed already that I find it difficult to express anything else more appropriate. Open both of your arms out to your sides...as here comes a hug from me.
I love your decision to have a memorial fund for Adelyne and am thrilled to contribute to it.
