“ Allard was a great man and Mick has many memories of living on the farm and helping with field work and farm chores. Mick tells me he remembers the day the first man walked on the moon and Allard put a tv outside and everyone sat around to watch. And even though I don't have those memories, I have memories of a wonderful man that always welcomed me into his home.

Alice and family ... our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Love ... Mick and Chris
