“ I send all my love and sympathy to Beth's family. She was a wonderful woman. I have so many wonderful memories of hours and hours of fun we had growing up. I can still remember the phone call I recieved when she found out she was going to get her baby girl finally. I can still hear the excitement in her voice and the times I came to the house and she had the closets full of baby clothes all ready for her new baby. We have lost a beautiful loving caring woman and my heart is with u at this time. I'm so sorry I couldn't be there I just moved to California in October and not able to fly home at this time.

“ To each member of the family of Beth, I'm sorry I was unable to make the services. I know this is a great loss to all of you and so hard to have this happen during the Christmas season when we do so many "family" things. It is however good to remember that because of Christ's coming so many years ago and the life He gave for us that we can have the hope of one day being able to join our loved ones that are now with Christ. May Jesus' love and peace surround you as you grieve for Beth. Jesus is faithful to help you through this time. Praying for you. With deepest sympathy, Juanita Flater
