“ Cesar was one of the greatest people I had the pleasure of working with at the Monroe Manor. Such a sweet man, such a gentleman, and had a beautiful family. I will miss him, as will the rest of staff. I thank God for blessing this world with such a beautiful and graceful life, for every memory of him that lives on, for every life he touched, and for the short time that I knew him. God bless your amazing family.

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences for your loss. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things anyone has to go through. However, this is not something that our loving God ever wanted us to experience. In his word the Bible, we are promised that there will be a time when we will all be reunited with our family and friends through a resurrection by means of Jesus Christ (John 5;28,29). This provides a wonderful hope for the future. I hope this brings your family the amount of comfort you need during this difficult time.

“ To the family of Caesar Valvidia;
I want to express my condolence for the loss of your loved one. A scripture was shared with me that has comforted me it's at Revelation 21:3-5 and promises that God will undo everything that causes us pain. I hope it comforts you too.
Sincerely; Mary Booker - Davis,il.
