

Charles "Chuck" M. Pryce

February 12, 1942 - August 13, 2019

Obituary

Charles "Chuck" Pryce Jr, 77, of Brodhead passed away on Tuesday, August 13, 2019 at home. Born February 12, 1942, in Brodhead, the son of "Sprout" Charles M. Pryce Sr and Ruth Culles. Chuck was an Army Veteran. Chuck married Geraldine, "Geri" Staples on November 4, 1967 in Danbury, WI. Chuck worked at Pierce Furniture Store in Brodhead and then dairy farmed most of his life. In retirement, Chuck enjoyed his time at Brewers Center Tavern bartending, cooking, playing machines and spending time with other patrons. Chuck found solace at the farm; sitting at camp around a fire, catching catfish on the Sugar River, taking nighttime van rides with Geri to watch deer, and endless hours splitting wood. He loved the Farm, his family and grandchildren.

Survived by his wife of 51 yrs, Geri, Children; Curt (Julie) Pryce, Ronnette Pryce-Walters, Grandchildren; Taylor, Jacey & Landon Pryce and Olivia & Zak Walters, sister, Nancy Oschin, Beloved Grand dogs; Rocky, Rudy, Boo & Sonnie Mae.

Visitation will be on Monday, August 19, 2019, from 10 a.m.-noon with the service starting at 12:00 p.m. at D. L. Newcomer Funeral Home, Brodhead, WI Burial in Greenwood Cemetery-Brodhead.

“ Geri and Family. I am so very sorry for your loss. We try to find words of comfort, but they seem so difficult to find. I know you WILL find comfort in all the memories you treasure in your heart. Continue to share those beautiful moments as they will comfort you in those dark times...Janice Turner
