“ I will always remember how special it was to me when I would stay the nights with Melissa and Aunt Cher. Growing up as a “City Slicker” Aunt Cher taught me how to ride or at least how to stay on a horse and we would listen to Don Williams while picking/cleaning veggies from her garden. I will miss her loving laugh {giggle} and hearing all the new stories about her grandkids. My condolences to the family.

“ Norma, I'm sorry to hear of Cheryl's death. Jane and I are in Colorado for two weeks of continuing education for Lutheran Pastor's. We will be unable to attend Cheryl's funeral and visit with you. We will always remember Cheryl for all the help she gave to Mom and Dad before they died. Our prayers are with you and the family for God's comfort. I was saddened by the news and pray that better days will come for the family. Peace, Bill Jr. and Jane Runaas
