“ Dear neighbor, We may not have met formally but I feel your pain. A few years ago I lost my beloved firstborn son, to lose a child has to be the worst pain one can experience. The Bible's hope of an earthly resurrection has brought me comfort. I'd like to share just a few thoughts from the Bible, 2Corinthians 1:3-5 and John 5: 28-29 are just a couple of scriptures that helped me. I live @ Lake Summerset & my number is 815-248-9251. May Almighty God massage your heart as he has done mine.

“ Donna, Chris, Toby and Larry I only had the chance to meet Cody on a handful of occasions and he was always polite and respectful, a true little gentelman. I know you were all very proud of Cody for the man he had become and what he had achived. Words can't express what I am feeling for you all, so I am sending big hugs from Colorado. "If ever there is tomorrow when we're not together...there is something you must always remember. You are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think, but the most important thing is, even if we're apart...I'll always be with you." [L] [SEP] ~Winnie the Pooh the many memories we have of Cody. I still think about the time he came with Jake to get a hair cut and he says Nana could you cut my hair too. well of course I can, he was so happy he got a Free Haircut. Cody will be missed and I am so proud that I got to know him over the years.

“ *Christine,
God has an Angel , love you Cody .
God Bless all of you .

“ I am without words. I have known Chris and the boys for years. Cody was the pride of his grandmother. I know he will be missed by so many people and I am among them. It's always hard to lose a loved one. I know just what Chris is going through. My prayers have been with the family and those who loved Cody and will continue to be said for those who were closest to him. I am truly sorry for the loss of such a special young man who was taken much too early.
