

David Eugene Pitkin

February 24, 1941 - October 10, 2017

David E. Pitkin, age 76, of Monroe, WI, passed away on Tuesday, October 10, 2017, at his home. He was born on February 24, 1941 in Binghamton, NY, the son of Harold and Hilda (Miesenhelder) Pitkin. David had worked as a delivery truck driver, had worked for the Binghamton Zoo, Binghamton, NY, and was a sales clerk for 7-11 in California. He is survived by two sons; Rick Pitkin, Christopher Vanhouten, both of NY; and a brother, Leonard Pitkin of Monroe. He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Dixie Anne. David's wishes were that there be no funeral service.

Tribute Wall

HO

“ I worked with Dave at the Binghamton zoo he was a close and dear friend. never met a more laid back ,kind,intelligent guy. Dave and I spent a lot of time together fishing and camping . Dave had worked his way up to gift shop manager and every body loved him. truly a good man he will be missed.rest in peace my friend.

Howard - February 15 at 03:47 PM

DE

“ Lost a good friend-will miss him!

Dewey&Deb - May 10, 2021 at 11:01 AM