“ Billy, Kelly, Bev and family....My sincerest of heartfelt condolences to all of you. Debbie told me she was going home the other day....and she is there now. She was a brave lady. We shared the same birthdate so many memories, many cakes she made and many laughs. She had a good heart and you all know she always did her best for all of you. May God Bless and help each one of you as you continue your journeys..

With Love, Rae

“ To Bill, Kelly, Bev and family: I want to send my sincere condolences to all of you. Debbie was a hard working lady, who did a wonderful job of raising her family alone, after your father died. She did so much for others, always baking a birthday cake or food for people in need. Unfortunately, a lot of these people are not around to tell you of all she did. You can be very proud of your mother and her committment and all she has done. May she rest in peace, free of heartbreak and pain.

I was never fortunate enough to have two wonderful children, like you Bill or you Kelly.

If you ever need someone to talk with about your mother, please feel free to contact me. I am in the phone book.

My best wishes to you all

With Love,

Pat Braun
