“ In 1968 I traveled with my parents to Illinois to see my mom's sister in Davis Junction. We spent a couple of nights with Dennis and his wife Benita and their two lovely daughters. Paul I believe helped manage the farm for his dad.I still have pictures of Paul and Diane with Pam with her dad's smoking pipe in her mouth sitting on couch..lol

“ I remember going to the farm and Paul saddling up his horse and rearing up between the house and barn. I was 4 years younger than Paul and thought that was sooooo cool. I also remember and admired his double barrel 410 shotgun hanging on the wall in the back room above the freezer. And of course Thanksgiving dinners at the farm were epic and i think of them often. Rest in peace Paul and goodbye for now. From your cousin Arvie Jensen.
