“ My name is Debbie. My father is Ronald Weichelt. When we were kids we would go to grandpa and grandma Weichelts house. Dennis always had his video camera and would be taking movies or pictures of the family around grandmas large dining room table. I wonder what happened to all those pictures. We always had a good time it is something I will always remember. Bless you uncle Dennis.

“ We'd known Dennis for around 40 years, having met him for the first time when we were canvassing neighborhoods for a Kid's bus ministry. At that time he and Karen had the two girls, and Gleason came later. He was always soft spoken with us and a good listener. Dennis wasn't without his challenges and frustrations, however, he always kept pushing on. I remember him as one of my favorites when I taught an adult Sunday School class. Rest in peace Mr. Dennis.

“ Dennis offered to help fix my van. He was a very quiet but kind man. I'm sure he has a special place in heaven. Rest in peace
