“ My heartfelt condolences for your loss. I can see her love, strength, and fighting spirit despite her pain in this photo. She is resting now peacefully until we see the promise in Isaiah 25:8,9 fulfilled because our God not only has the ability but he wants to.

“ To the family of Diann Lynn Keller; Please accept my condolences as one of your neighbors. I have found much comfort in the promises in God's Word, one such is 2Corinthians 1:3-5 which refers to "God as the God of all comfort and of tender mercies." The Bible promises the time when even death will be done away. I pray that you will be comforted by these verses. Sincerely; Mary J. Booker

“ I am a classmate of Diann's and she was always so happy when I would see her. I have many fond memories of her in high school. We had several classes together. Life separates friends, but memories stay alive. Several times I think to call her, and don't...now its too late. Al, I am so sorry that she is gone....she will be remembered so fondly.
