“ I have know Don since the 70's. We would spend many hours talking late in the evening at the Alphorn Motel. Our discussions would center around guns, hunting, and Jesus. When Don's dog Mittsy had pups, the kids wanted to keep one. Since they could only keep one dog, I adopted Mittsy and she became my daily companion, taking her to the print shop every day and home at night to sleep by my bed. We kept many long days together. I even purchased Don's old hunting car that had "Blues Brittany Spaniels" painted on the side. I have great memories of the family growing up together at the Motel. I am so sorry for your loss... Jessica, Elizabeth, Ethan, Elaine, and Deb. Don and Deb were so kind to me through the years. I will miss Don greatly.

“*To the family of Don,
I want to extend my deepest condolences to all of you. Don was not only a valued member of our team—he became a true friend to me. In these past months, I was fortunate to spend real, meaningful time with him and get to know the man behind the wheel. What I discovered was someone funny, warm, and endlessly positive. He had a way of seeing the good in every situation, and I admired that more than he ever knew.*

His work ethic was unmatched. No matter the task, he met it with a smile and his trademark, “No problem, boss—whatever you need.” But what stood out to me most was his unwavering faith. He lived it openly, confidently, and without apology. That strength of belief was something I deeply respected.

I take comfort in knowing he is at peace, and I hold onto the hope and promise that we will meet again. Until that day, I will miss him—in my daily routine, in the quiet moments, and in the many ways he brightened the world around him.

Rest easy, Don. You were one of the good ones.

With heartfelt sympathy,

Andy Powers

“To say you'll be missed by those left behind is an understatement. Your life will most certainly live on through your soul mate Deb. I have heard many many stories about you over the years and I know those stories will never stop. But one day there will be a reunion. You loved and were loved, you can't do any better than that. Our deepest condolences,
