“ Edie & Graham were our neighbors in the 60's, and our parents stayed in touch over the years. Very nice people. I had my mom buy a painting of Edie's about 10 years ago.
She was one of our families oldest friends. All the Millers are in our thoughts today.

“ We received a beautiful watercolor still life for our wedding 44 years ago and still enjoying it. It was a gift from Sandy, a piano student of mine. Hope you are still playing !?

“ Edie was a wonderfully inspiring member of Madison Watercolor Society. She was always kind and very creative. I have one of her beautiful baskets to remind me of her and her positive courage when she became blind. She was missed greatly when she could no longer attend.

“ To the children of Edie and Graham,

I had the chance to visit with your parents some years ago and it was clear they were happy together and were leading the life they wanted to. I hope there are dogs to play with wherever they are.

“ Dear Miller family,

I don't get undated news about the passing of folks, now that my mom is gone. I just read this announcement and wanted to send my condolences. I have many fond memories of your mom and dad, riding horses at your place and working for your dad on the farm one summer. God's blessings and comfort to you in your loss.

“ Dr. and Edie's neighbor just happened to be getting his mail as we drove by the place that we thought was the Millers and I stopped to ask him if Edie Miller lived next door. Imagine our surprise when he told us Thursday 5/23 that she died a month ago. We had taken a road trip with my 92 year old Father to New Glarus and came back through Monroe and Brodhead.

Your Father helped my Father out with his veterinary practice in Burlington several times and both of our Mothers enjoyed painting. Dr. Gram would stop with his dogs to visit before or after going to Bong State Park and talk about the Madison Farmer's Market, which I finally got to last summer.

The memories we carry make our lives and your parents built some really memorable ones. Our condolences at this time.
