“ I work at Graceland Manor, and from the moment I met Ethol, we were friends. In the short time she lived at Graceland, she and I formed a strong bond. And although she couldn't remember my name, She always referred to me as 'the girl with all the hair'. It was so wonderful to hear how she would ask when I would be coming to work, and to see her face light up when I would get to work, made my day... she was my very favorite person at Graceland, and I will miss her.
