

Jeremy John Beckerdite

June 6, 1983 - May 12, 2020

Obituary

Madison, WI – Jeremy John Beckerdite passed away unexpectedly on May 12, 2020. Jeremy passed away peacefully at his father's home. He was born on June 6, 1983 in Madison, Wisconsin the son of John Beckerdite and Linda Stephenson. He graduated from North Saint Paul High School.

Jeremy was an old soul and enjoyed bringing peace and happiness to everyone he knew. Jeremy had a contagious laugh and smile that would brighten a room. He enjoyed music, fishing, boating, NASCAR and MMA fighting. Family was everything to Jeremy, spending quality time with his nephews, joking with his sisters or spending hours with his Pops on the deck having deep conversations about life.

Jeremy is survived by his father, John Beckerdite; his mother, Linda Stephenson; his sisters, Melissa, Krista and Priscilla; his nephews, Cameron, Landon, Evan and Ivan and both grandmothers, Joan Bless and Erna Stephenson.

He is also survived by numerous other family members including, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Jeremy has gone home to be with God. He will be greatly missed by everyone that has ever known him. Until we meet again may you rest in peace J.J.

“ My heart was broken when I learned Jeremy that you had gone to heaven. You were a very special little boy to me that captured my heart a long time ago. I will forever have beautiful memories of you as a young boy with a smile that was infectious...Your at peace now...no more demons chasing you. You will always have a special place in my heart because you were so very special to me...
