“ Todd I've been thinking about you and your family through out the day. I know you will continue to stay strong for your family during this difficult time. Sanj and I are going to talk this weekend about a long overdue road trip to see you in the near future. I did not think flowers would arrive in time, so a contribution has been made to the FHN Cancer Center in memory of your Mom.

“ I taught at Dakota High School for six years, and I enjoyed Joanne as a student. I especially remember her in the play, "Curious Savage," in which she played the part of Fairie Mae. I can still hear her lines: "Nobody has said they love me this live-long day." Another character told her that when we say, "Take an umbrella, or wear your mittens, or be careful on the ice," that's saying, "I love you." Then Fairie Mae said, "My dentist says I have perfect occlusion, Does that mean he loves me?" Sending sincere sympathy to her family.
