“ So sorry for your loss of your wonderful brother. I have nothing but good memories growing up just a block away. John, came over to visit with Dad quit often. I remember one time he had to talk to Dad and asked him not to put him in jail. Turns out he said a bad word, and I'm sure was told if he did it again..... he didn't say the word but put his hand over his mouth and ran off the porch. He was a great neighborhood friend. Let all your happy memories get you through the coming days. What a celebration in heaven rejoining his Mom and Dad must be going on today.

“ My sympathy to John's brother and sisters. John was a great person to know. He always remembered me when I would be in church at St. Rose of Lima. Would always ask about Vicki who always had trouble getting him out of the pool in Brodhead. John would call her Thompson. At the pool you probably remember 3 blows of the whistle meant that every one should get out of the pool and Vicki was the only one that he would listen too. What a guy. Hello to you all. “ When I think of John Kundert, I remember one of the happiest people I've ever met! During religion classes at St Victors or over at our house, or at the Apostolate to the Handicap Masses, he was always a treasure. While I hadn't seen John since high school, I'm so glad to hear he had a long and happy life with family and friends. My condolences to his family. I'm sure you'll miss his sunshine in your lives.
