“ Have a lot of good memories thanks to John at Woodbridge! Hadn't seen him in many years but never forgot his big booming voice, or his ability to drink a pitcher of beer in 15 seconds and his unicycle! RIP old friend!

“ Sorry to hear of John's passing, haven't seen him since working third shift at Woodbridge, which on many a payday morning would meet up at either Wish's Disco or Flynn's Bar to cash paychecks after a long work week. John was a one of a kind good guy, a peacemaker trustworthy, hard working and generous, no doubt he will be missed! Our condolences to all of John's family.
