“ I met Lois after her husband, Jim, died. She needed a ride to the Stateline Women's Connection (a Christian Organization). This began many wonderful years of doing things together as I was the driver). We seemed to connect like sisters and had a lot in common. I was happy to pick her up for groceries, going to church or just to have a cup of coffee together. She was my best friend and I miss her, but I know she is in her new home with our heavenly Father where there is no pain.
