

Lola L. (Allen) Coggins

June 17, 1924 - March 17, 2015

Lola L. Coggins, age 90, was called home by her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on March 17, 2015. She was born on June 17, 1924 to Thomas and Mammie (Williams) Allen in Russellville, AL where she resided until she was united in marriage to her lifelong partner, Cleo A. Coggins on August 12, 1945. They shared 60 years together and had 9 children. Lola raised her children in Rockford, IL until moving to Wisconsin in 1976. Lola's passion in this life was her children and her family. Her door was always open for all to be welcomed and loved. She worked tirelessly raising her children and enjoyed her grandchildren like her own. Everyone fought to stay at Grandma's house, it was the best place to be! Lola loved to travel, near and far, most precious was their family vacations to Sweet Home Alabama. Her Southern roots always ran deep.. She is survived by 9 children; Jerry (Darlene) Coggins, Rickey Coggins, both of Beloit, Patsy (Martin Wooly) Robertson, Juda, WI, Jimmy Coggins, Janet Strothman, Vickey Coggins, all of Brodhead, Carol (Greg) Merrick, Independence, MO, Tony R. (Marie) Coggins, Janesville, Lisa (Dennis Kruswick) Coggins, Algoma, WI and Grandma/Mom to Misty (Randy) Yenney, Knoxville, IA; 24 grandchildren, 36 great-grandchildren, 9 great-great grandchildren, and lifelong friend, Polly Gorst, Rockford, IL. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, brothers, J.C., Thomas, Billy and Roscoe; sisters, Christine, Lilla, Barbara and Lois; great-grandson, Austin Manley, and daughter-in-law, Brenda Coggins. Funeral services will be held at noon on Saturday, March 21, 2015, at the Living Word Church, Brodhead, WI. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery, Brodhead. Visitation will be held on Saturday from 10:30 a.m. until time of services at the church. The family would like to extend a very heartfelt thank you to mother's care providers at the Monroe Clinic, including Dr. Richardson, Jodi, Lori, Alexa, Constance and the entire Imaging Dept. Further thanks to the Monroe Clinic Homecare Hospice for their dedicated team during this difficult time.

Tribute Wall

“ Mother, It's hard to believe it's been 8 years since you left us! I didn't forget your birthday this month how could I, I think of you and dad daily. I miss you both so sooo much! Life is so different without you and dad and it will never be the same until we meet again. I will never forget what god allowed me to see and only me to see the night before you left us. I guess I can consider myself one of the lucky ones to be able to witness something as powerful and so beautiful. God gave me that opportunity and I am so grateful for that. I know you and dad are up in heaven looking down on all of us. We've lost a few more down here, I'm sure you already know. It's late and I should be in bed but I needed to reach you and this tribute wall is here to share feelings and anyone who reads this knows mother that you have a deep place in our hearts and that will never change. To be loved as much as you were loved by so many mom is just incredible! You left so many footprints on so many people and you just can't be forgotten. I love you mom, give dad a big hug for me and tell him I love and miss him forever. Goodnight, you both are always in my heart! Love you baby Lisa (Eesa) ;)

“ *Jim, Janet and rest of family, just read about Mom, so sorry for you loss but heaven has gained a great family member. We wont be able to come but want you to know that we are praying for you during this time. I just saw Jim two weeks ago when I was in Wisconsin for my Brother-in-laws funeral and asked about Lola.
May God truly bless you lives today.*

“ My beautiful mother, I feel so empty inside! I miss you soooo much! Its so hard knowing I cant call you or hear your voice. Mother I thank God for choosing you to be my mom, you taught me what the true meaning of love and strenth is. My heart is breaking but I'm so thankful that Jesus came to take you home! I can only imagine the beauty you are witnessing now in your heavenly home that Jesus prepared for you. I will continue to talk to you mom, I hope you can hear me. I love you so much and cant wait until we can be reunited at heavens gate. I love you all infinity

Mother's Day has come and gone... Nine times nine empty ears... Your birthday is approaching. You would be 100 years old. Mom, if you were still here, this birthday... Hard to imagine, sometimes I wish so hard that you could know that you're being talked to, visited, little tokens of love left for you, and Dad... Think today is fast approaching where we're going to find out about that, not sure what the Lord allows but I sure hope he lets you know that. That I think of you countless times a day, I miss our morning calls or night time calls... ... Life sure changed for everyone when you and Daddy left... Longing for home longing for Jesus... Meet me at the gate 🥺🥺💕

“ Jan, Jim, Jerry, Rick, Randy, Patsy, Vicky, Carol, and Lisa, and family. My words can't express the pain you must be feeling at the loss of your beautiful mother Lola. There are many people that loved your mother and also feel her loss. Please know my heart is with each and everyone of you. She was one of the most loving and warm people I know. She touched many peoples lives. How lucky of a family you are to be able to say "That's my mother". All I can say is how fortunate I was to have had her in my life. My Condolences....Your friend, Carol

“ My beautiful, sweet grandma gained her wings. Although this is a sad time, she is no longer suffering. She sure did love little Lottie (my daughter). Whenever we went to visit she would say to me as we were leaving "when are you going to bring my baby doll back?" Well grandma, now you can watch over her and the rest of us all the time with grandpa right by your side. I'll miss your sharp tongue, loving words, the turkey dressing on thanksgiving that nobody can quite replicate, and most of all, hugging you and kissing your forehead and telling you how pretty you looked even when you didn't think so. Fly high, Lola. You beautiful soul.

“ My dear Grandmother, I will cherish the many times we spoke long distance, sometimes for hours, just laughing about things only we know. You never forgot me, even though time and distance was our enemy, I will never forget your sweet smile and wonderful laugh. Your face will always be an image in my memory and your laughter will sing in my ears. I will hold you in my heart until we meet again on the better side.

I Love You Grandmother,

“ *I'm writing on behalf of my mom.
"I was sorry to hear of your mother passing away. I remember living next door to your family in Rockford IL. We would have attended but have no way to get to Brodhead for the visitation/funeral service.

“ I would like to express my condolences to your family, it can be hard for friends and family to find the right words to express at difficult times like these. The Bible is a great source to look into and has helped me personally when My dad passed away. Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again on this earth and have the prospect of remaining on it forever in a peaceful beautiful paradise earth. (Isaiah 35:5,6) A comforting thought is at Revelation 21:3,4, where it states "...And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry be anymore the former things have past away". This scripture gives us hope for the future! You can also find comfort in Acts 24:15 - Death does not end it all. May Jehovah God bring you comfort and peace during this difficult time. (Ps.46:1, Ps.83:18)

Mom, I think of you so often. So many times I want to talk to you like we did on the phone everyday before you left us. There is so much I want to say! So much has happened since your departure, it is hard to believe and I'm so happy you didn't have to go through it! Life is so short here on this earth and so many things we take for granted. As time goes by heaven is gaining our family members one by one Devin being the most recent mom! I hope everyone is celebrating the reuniting to be together once again. Until we meet again mother you are in my thoughts and memories forever! I love and miss you sooo much!❤️ Your daughter Lisa

Mother I can't believe it's been 6 years already since you went to your heavenly home. You are in my thoughts everyday mom, I miss you so much. So much has changed here mom, I'm thankful you and daddy don't have to witness it. Prophecy is being fulfilled. I look forward to being reunited one day mom. Until then I will continue to think of you, miss you and talk to you across the miles. I love you mother ❤️
