“ Mary Ellen was such a wonderful neighbor! She was so kind to my children, was always buying them treats and making them cupcakes. I know she derived lots of joy watching their shenanigans in the backyard. We are all going to miss her very much.

“ I had been waiting each week to see her in her usual place at Mass. I guess the waiting is over because she now sits in the best possible seat. Each time I would see her, I would stop to say hello. She was always with a Rosary in her hands, praying for someone. She even prayed for our daughter. How I have missed her during these many months. May God welcome her into His Eternal Embrace. She will be greatly missed and I am sure my gaze will always fall upon her usual place and when it does, I will think fondly of this beautiful lady.

Oh my sweet Mary, God definitely had a purpose and a plan. It was no accident that I was at that nursing home but to wait for your arrival. We were suppose to meet and become friends and I was suppose to be there for you. It was my pleasure to serve you and help you. I grew to love you in such a short time. 7 months exactly. You left me on the same day my dad left me only four years later. I'm seriously devastated and it's going to take me a while to recover from this. I love you and I know you loved me too. You always said we were cut out of the same cloth. Life is definitely not gonna be the same. Rest In Peace my beautiful friend until we meet again and maybe I can do your hair again. Peace my friend.
