“ I'm so sorry I didn't know about Pauline's passing until today. I knew her all my life as I lived across the street from her and attended the same church growing up. She was a wonderful neighbor and I often visited her when I came home to see my parents. She often sewed clothes for my family and shared produce from her big garden. She and Harold took care of one of my brothers and me for about a month when my parents traveled to Switzerland with my grandparents when I was a little girl. They were very generous to our family. Janis and Judy were our babysitters. I'm so sorry for your loss.
