“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all -- our deepest sympathy. Aunt Olga was a very special lady as we thoroughly enjoyed her visits. She had a true poetic talent that always made you smile. Heaven has gained an angel. Mom, Dad, & I talked about driving down for the celebration of Mom's life, but decided due To the Covid nightmare we better not. We will be there in spirit.

“ I met Olga when my husband Howard was a resident at Woods Crossing. She became a dear friend to both of us. There was competition between them as to who won the most in Bingo. Loved hearing her yodeling and she so enjoyed doing it. She was a very social lady who brought joy and fun to all of us. Condolences to the family.
