“ Dear Ann,

I am so sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. I have very warm memories of visiting and spending vacation time with the family when I was a young girl. Phyllis had a huge heart and great sense of humor.

“ Dear Ann,

My memories of your Mom are many, going back to times when she taught me to ride a bicycle on the dirt roads of Des Plaines. I remember her as a teenager, and then I remember when you were born. So many years have passed and now you have memories of her to cherish and share with your children. My the Easter season bring you joy, knowing one day you will be with her again.

*With love,
Jill*
