“ My sincere sympathy to you for the loss of Richard. I considered it a privilege to have been able to care for Richard at Evansville over the years. I learned he loved avocados and how to determine their ripeness, so occasionally I would bring him as a treat. We would have discussions on the updates I would inform him of about Brodhead. He was always so polite and kind while he was working at the grocery store and even my grandmother spoke highly of him. Richard loved his son Chris and family. He will surely be missed. May he RIP.

Chris and Family - Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know that they are happy. Uncle Dick is now Angel and was able to shed his earthly body. I know he is in heaven and looking down at us and saying don't cry, just remember me with love and know that we will all be together some day. I am with family...

“ Richard was a wonderful help to our family over the years. When Dad hired him, he was sure that he would turn out to do great things for our business and our community. We were never disappointed. His work ethic was second to none, and he always wanted to do what was best for his customers. His quiet demeanor in just going about his business as best he knew it was noticed by his fellow employees and customers alike. He was a good man and he will be missed. Rest in peace friend.

Dick will be deeply missed. My dad, Harry, couldn't have asked for a better room-mate / friend these past two years. We will be forever grateful for that blessing, and to have the privilege of knowing him, albeit for such a short time. I already miss his smiling face. Rest easy Dick.

“ Sid Stair watched a young, clean cut, punctual, handsome young kid walking past the store every morning heading to high school. Dad stopped him one day and asked him if he would like a job. Lucky for all of us Dick said yes and became an integral part of Stair Foods for 30 years. Sid and Norabelle thought the world of Dick.

Dick became a super produce, jack of all trades man. Dick was a great person who worked hard, laughed hard, loved his family, and was polite and respectful to everyone.

Dick, I will remember your smile, quick wit, and loyalty to all of us. Thank you.

RIP my friend.
