“ Riley was by far the best friend I made at basic training. Our flight to Atlanta getting delayed gave me a better chance to get to know him, and I'm glad I did. He was a great person, and I always enjoyed nights during basic when we'd get to talk after our final formation. We helped each other through when times were tough, and I'm glad we kept in touch after we returned home. I just wish we would've been able to get together like we always talked about. My thoughts and prayers are with his family, and I plan to make the trip down for his funeral. May he rest in peace, and may God bless him and his family. He was an amazing friend, and a great soldier. Love you man.

“ I remember Riley as a young scout with my son Andrew and my husband Arne was a leader. I remember many campouts, lots of laughs and "boys being boys" Riley was such a nice young man ANY parent would be proud to call him their son. May he rest in peace and my God comfort and bless his entire family at this trying time.

“ Riley was an amazing person we both went to band camp and I remember that on my first day I was nervous and sort of upset. He came up to me right away and introduced himself and his friends. I got to know him throughout the week he was so sweet and so nice. He was the kind of person that could make anyone laugh. I made many friends that week. Including him.

It was a privilege to know him.

“ I had the privilege of getting to know my young cousin better this past weekend in Chicago. I was so very impressed with his love of life, knowledge about a wide variety of topics, and his plans for his future. He was such an easy person to talk to and he enjoyed so much in life. He had a great sense of humor and enjoyed teasing his mom and younger brother. I still can not wrap my head around the fact that we lost a future leader way, way too soon. Riley is in all our hearts, and God will hold him and the rest of his family in the palm of his hand. I feel blessed to have known him for the short period of time that I did. May you watch over all those you left behind Riley!

“I remember a Boy Scout camp out where Riley was tasked with showing younger scouts how to start a fire. He started off by dividing the scouts into two groups and explained that the first group would be called “Team 1” and the second was to be called “Group B”.

He was a smart kid with a very quick mind, I really fun combination.

“The first time I met Riley was in December when I was told a Cadet needed a ride to drill. Since it was on my way, I picked him up. Right away I could tell I liked him. I found out he was from Albany, so we talked about many things since I grew up not far from there. He easily fit into our unit and was liked by all. He was a very motivated Soldier and did everything asked of him with enthusiasm. I could only see a bright future for this young man. He seemed wise beyond his years. I will miss being able to see what accomplishments he could have made as I know it would have been many! My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends.

“ I met Riley several years ago at band camp. He was so welcoming and friendly to me and all of the other first years. He always knew how to make me laugh. He was such a talented individual. He is gone from this world far too soon. He would've gone far. godspeed.

“ Russ, Leigh and Reece - It's been almost 11 years since we moved to Albany and you offered to watch Sarah & Casey before and after school. Your family was the first friends we had in town. We have a lot of fun memories of get togethers at your house. All the times on the trampoline and in the pool. The girls have been remembering some of the fun they had with Riley while they were at your house everyday. Casey remembers how much fun it was to walk to the end of your driveway to wait for the bus. She says that he always made it so much fun even though it is a long driveway. We will never forget his friendly smile and his laugh. He was a great kid and it was a pleasure knowing him all these years, watching him grow into a great man. He will be greatly missed. Our prayers and deepest sympathies are with all of you during this very difficult time. We are there for you if you need anything and God will see you through this. God Bless you all.

“ I wrote the following words on October 25, 2008, for Riley's letter of recommendation to UW-Madison and I want to share them with you:

"Riley Whitehead is an exceptionally gifted young man, who has the analytical thinking skills and the ability to express himself superbly in both writing and speech. He has a wealth of knowledge in many areas. For instance, he took a routine vocabulary quiz in which each student had to write a paragraph using the words properly; Riley's paragraph was delightfully humorous, showing not only his knowledge but his creativity. His last oral book report on Robinton Mistry's 500 page A Fine Balance analyzed not only the problems of Indira Gandhi's India but Riley chose to "see" India first person through the eyes of a college student in the novel. The resulting performance was simply stunning and mesmerized the entire class as well as me. As a former veteran forensics coach who has judged state tournaments, I seldom give an A+, which is exactly what Riley earned."

Riley was such a brilliant and charming young man, one that made my English classroom sparkle with his wit. My sympathies are very much with you.

“ Riley would approach me, smiling, and say "Hi Clare's mom!" I can hear his voice now.... “ The world has lost a very bright young man! Riley came to our District forensic meet a week ago to see Abby, his girlfriend, but also visited all of us coaches in the "TAB" room. He talked about his job at the University and how he wanted to see some of the performances at the meet. We laughed and hugged when he had to go. He had such a broad base of learning and understanding of the world. It is hard to believe he is gone and that his life was cut so short. I will always remember him as one of the most remarkable and mature students I have ever met in my 40 years of teaching. My deepest sympathy to his family and friends. I love you, Abby, and may you find comfort from all who do love you.

“ While it is tragic to hear of Riley's passing while still so young, I find solace in the fact that he packed many lifetimes of energy, adventure, humor and kindness into his few years.

I've been thinking about the many hours I spent with Riley last summer when we played young lovers in "Oklahoma." Every moment of working with him--literally every moment--was full of energy. I can't remember one time that I didn't enjoy being with him, and that is very high praise!

Riley was funny, he was fearless, he was intelligent, he was sincere, he was charismatic, he was sweet, and that was all in the first 30 seconds of meeting him.

This world has lost a brilliant light, and I mourn for your family at this unbelievably difficult time. My prayers for God, the great Comforter, to be ever felt in your lives.

Thanks for the wonderful memories, Riley. We'll miss you.

“ I was working the curtain in Evansville Community Theatre's production of Oklahoma in Summer 2010 when Riley played the role of Will Parker. I thoroughly enjoyed chatting with him when he was hanging around back stage waiting to go on. He was very pleasant, kind and friendly. My teenage daughter was in the play with Riley. I can't imagine the sense of loss you must feel. It so tragic to lose such a young person.

My deepest sympathies to Riley's family, close friends and girlfriend. God bless you with wonderful memories of Riley's life.

“ Even though i did not know much about Riley, I do remember one special moment that will always be the one memory that i have of Riley. It was at the Albany Idol when Riley was a senior. I was in this talent show, and i remember the outstanding singing performance that Riley did. The scene was so amazing. I abosolutely loved his theme for this one song that Riley sang. It was a mad scientist theme that went along perfectly with his song. Remembering this one moment of Riley, will stay in my heart forever. His performance at the Albany Idol, showed that Riley was a man that wasnt afraid to express himself. He loved his family and friends, and he will forever be missed by theVillage of Albany. “ As Riley sat in his first grade desk I could tell even back then what a smart, creative and thoughtful person he truly was. I especially am grateful for all the volunteer work he did with the Friends of the Library group with the Snack With Santa event. From visits at the farm, to a trip to Ann Jones' house after they moved, to watching him perform in a play in Monroe, to having a fun discussion with him and his mom on the way home from a basketball game in Blanchardville, I was blessed to be a part of his growing up years. Leigh-Russ-Reece, you are in the thoughts of many and I hope you will find a small measure of comfort from your friends and family at this time and in the future. Rochelle

“ My Riley came over to my house one day so that I could watch and spend some time with him and Reece. When he came in the door he had a big wide grin on his face...came up to me saying " Aunt Wanda I have something for you, I have been saving it up for a long time!! “ I, too, was extremely honored to have met and worked with Riley onstage for Oklahoma. I remembered being truly surprised to find out he was just out of high school because he seemed wise well beyond his years. He was friendly, had a great sense of humor, and I can't begin to tell you how much fun it was to work with him in the show. I can still hear him say his opening line, "Hi Aunt Eller!!!" and my reply, "Hi Will!" He was also a wonderful dance partner!

My heart aches with yours knowing that we've lost such a fine young man who brightened the lives of so many. He will truly be missed.

“ I went to Platteville Summer Music Camp with Riley on several occasions. I was between 7th and 8th grade the first year, 2007. Every year after that that he was there, I was too. I hope that at the very least, you can find comfort in the fact that Riley made sure that there were so many people around to support you in this time of extreme sorrow. Riley left a hole in all of our hearts that can never be filled, but that's ok because we are all so much better for having known him. If there is anything at all that Dave and I can do for you, please don't hesitate to ask. Take care of yourselves and take care of each other.

*What can you say at a time like this? I wish I had some words to help fill the great hole in your hearts, but there are none. Riley was a very special young man who will be sorely missed by everyone who knew him. I will always remember Riley---who even as a young lad in Elementary Guidance classes---had a twinkle in his eye, a smile on his face and a quick wit like no other. “ *I had the opportunity to judge at a few forensics meets with Riley, and I found him to be one of the nicest young men I've ever met. He was so friendly, outgoing, sincere, and funny. He had the rare talent of making you feel, in a very short time, that you had known him for years. Most of all, I offer my deepest sympathy to Riley's family and also to Abby. My heart goes out to you at what must be life's most trying hour. My fondest memory will be of him being look-out for SGT Jeranek and me. Cadet was so willing, it was great. “ Dear Leigh, Russ, and Reece,

My heart goes out to you even as I can't imagine how difficult this is for your family. Although our daughter Hazel and Riley were only classmates through 4th grade, I've enjoyed keeping up with Riley through the years by talking to you, Leigh, at the Albany book club and hearing about all of his successes in forensics and theater, your wonderful family trips, and your close family.

We were lucky to get to know Riley again when he was in the Evansville Community Theatre's production of Oklahoma last summer. We gave him a ride to auditions and I was so impressed with him while we talked in the car from Madison to Evansville. He said it might be the last summer for a while when he would have the time to do something fun like this and he hoped he'd at least get a speaking part. Of course, he got more than that and was so much fun to watch on stage! What a talented, positive young man. Lyman, Hazel, and Clark were involved in the play and I know they enjoyed getting to know him again, too.
