“ Our deepest condolences to all of the family on the loss of Bobby. His presence will certainly be missed.

It's been more years than I care to count since I last saw Bobby. I remember all the times that he, Milo and I played, (and sometimes worked) at the farm, and the visits to our home in Brodhead. They were sometimes for haircuts when my Dad was still able to do it.

We'll remember Bobby and the family in our prayers.

God Bless!

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time in the loss of Bob. There are so many thoughts running through my head of the places we'd been and the things we'd do with your parents that I can't single out just one memory of them. We always had a good time with them. I will miss that deep voice hollering out through the neighborhood. May the memories you have help you through the difficult times. If you need anything we're here.

“ *To the family of Robert Frie;
I'm sorry for the loss of you loved one, I'm a resident at Lake Summerset. A scriture that has comforted me is at Isaiah 25:8
where God promises to do away with death and the pain it causes all of us. I hope that this scripture brings you some comfort.
Sincerely; Mary Booker*
