“ I first met Rollin about 1968 when I began baby sitting for his mother and father who at that time both played in my father's band. I did this until I went into the military at which time the Klick family gave me a going away party. I next saw him in 1979 when I moved to Brodhead. Rollin was always respectful and caring to family and friends and I'm sure he will be missed by those who knew and cared for him. R.I.P my friend.
