“ Rosie was a wonderful person. I admired her capabilities of handling ponies. She was always wearing her cowboy boots. A real cowgirl! Condolences to the family at this time.

“ Rosie was my school bus driver for most of my school years. She also happened to be the mother of one of my best friends, her daughter, Jeri. Rosie had the most beautiful smile, and it greeted my brothers and I boarding the school bus each day! I know you are up there in heaven smiling, Rosie, making heaven that much more beautiful ❤️

“ Such a sweet person. When I was little and had ponies, I would see Rosie at all the horse shows. She was a real cowgirl to me, plaid shirt, jeans and cowboy boots. She was awesome. About 15 years ago, we re-connected at Center Avenue Antique Mall when she would spend time hunting for nickels for her coin collection. I also babysat briefly for Candace. Condolences to you all.
