“ Mrs. T was a special lady at school that I will remember as someone that was always thinking of others. She often donated coloring books, stickers and snacks to my kindergarten classroom because she'd see things out shopping that she thought the kids would enjoy or need. She always had a smile and brightened my day when she stopped in to visit. Her family is in my thoughts.

“ Sharon was such a bright light. When she smiled she lit up the room. She would perk right up when music was playing or we had live entertainment. As soon as the music started, her toes started tapping, then her feet engaged, then her legs and up she was dancing around. She danced and danced even after the music stopped. She sang along with the words. Dementia can be a cruel disease, but we see in each individual, A light that is still within them that lets them enjoy life., if only for moments. Moments that count. Mike you were so good about bringing down her favorite snacks; pumpkin swirl cake, Goldfish, Peanuts, Bananas and other fruit. You all became a part of our family there, and will be deeply missed. My deepest condolences to Mike, Aaron and Cheryl. Take care and may god bless.
