“ *To the family of Sherrie Ann Haines;
I'm very sorry for your loss. The scripture at 2Corinthians 1:3,4 calls God a God of comfort. The Bible holds the promises that God will undo all the harm that the human family has suffered. Revelation 21:3-5 promises that even death will be done away with. I hope that these verses will comfort you as they have as they have me.
Sincerely; Mary J. Booker*

“ To my friend, Daniel Haines and the family of Sherrie Haines: I was deeply saddened over the news of Sherrie's recent passing from a mutual friend. I have fond remembrances of Sherrie, and had occasion to visit with her often when she and Dan or LeRoy would come into Earthsong, in Janesville where I clerked. She had a rich inner wisdom and quiet smile when discussing life's ups and downs. Sherrie had a generous spirit and created lovely sewing projects. Her love and attention to grandchildren was tangible. All too soon her soul was called to be with the Lord. Sherrie was a joy to know and will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences to Dan and his family. Kindest Regards, Carol Swanson

“ To Dan and Family,
I worked with Sherrie at Oaklawn Academy. I am very sorry to hear of her passing. She has been missed since she left Oaklawn. I always enjoyed visiting with Sherrie when we had the chance. She did such a good job with the student's uniforms. They looked so sharp when she was here. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time.
