Suzie had many jobs, including managing a restaurant, bartending, babysitting, and working at the Brodhead Piggly Wiggly. She was a very special person who touched the hearts of many. She always helped in any way that she could and even opened her house up to those who needed a place to call home. Suzie loved with everything she had. She left behind a great legacy of people who cared greatly for her. She is survived by a son, Christopher (Theresa) Clark; a daughter, Melissa (Jason Erickson) Clark, both of Brodhead; grandchildren, Ashley, Clayton, Christen, Chandra, Kylie, Ravyn, and Adelynn; her mother, Phyllis McKinney, Monroe; four brothers, Mike (Sue) McKinney, Madison, Kevin (Karen) McKinney, Beloit, Brian (Shari) McKinney, Delavan, and Tim McKinney, Janesville, as well as many loved nieces nephews and their children. She was preceded in death by her father, Richard ◆ Dunk ◆ McKinney, and nephews Bobby Armstrong and Zachary McKinney. Visitation will be held from 5 p.m. until 7 p.m., Friday, May 8, 2015, at the D.L.

NEWCOMER FUNERAL HOME, BRODHEAD, WI. A Celebration of Life will held on Saturday, May 9, 2015, from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m. at The Brunch-Box (Cardinal Lanes), Brodhead, WI. “ I am so very sorry for the loss of Sue. I will always remember her of having a smile and being friendly, ready to visit, no matter how she was feeling. She was a hard worker and so compassionate and caring. We had had knee replacements at about the same time and would compare recovery feelings. I truly always enjoyed visiting with Sue, she was who she was - genuine and true - no trying to be someone she wasn't - a beautiful person and soul with a matching beautiful heart. You will surely miss her, but will have treasured, loving memories, as will I. You have my deepest sympathy.

“ I have no doubt that God will remember her and keep her memory safe. He will surely be glad to bring her back to life in a perfect world when suffering will be no more and we will all welcome back our loved ones that are asleep in death. (Revelation 21:4 & John 5:28, 29) May our loving Father bring your family the peace and comfort only He can provide.

“ We were sad to hear of Suzie's passing. Sue and I were high school friends and classmates. I would always try and go to her checkout at the grocery store so we could "catch up" with each other. She will be missed by all who knew her. Keep the memories close so they will get you through the difficult times. Comfort and peace through Jesus be with you all.
