

Thomas Charles Hunter

April 19, 2010

Evansville/Ripon - Thomas Charles Hunter, age 71, of Evansville, formerly of Ripon, passed away on Monday, April 19, 2010, at his home. He was born at Ripon Hospital on December 3, 1938, the son of William Emory and Marguerite (Riesenweber) Hunter. He married Beverly Weishaar on August 22, 1959 in Rush Lake, WI, near Ripon. They later divorced. Thomas graduated from Ripon High School and attended Whitewater State and Stout State colleges. He farmed, but later sold and joined the U.S. Air Force. Tom later became a semi-truck driver and lived in Beloit and Brodhead, WI, before moving to Evansville. He always enjoyed family reunions, rarely missed any, and enjoyed his relatives. He is survived by a brother, Donald (Audrey) Hunter, Walhalla, SC, and several nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, a son, Thomas, in infancy, a daughter, Tammy, three brothers, Lawrence, Gordon, John, and a sister, Katherine. Graveside services will be held at 1:30 p.m., Friday, April 23, 2010, at Liberty Prairie Cemetery, Pickett, WI, with full military rites. Rev. Greg Decker will officiate. The D.L. NEWCOMER FUNERAL HOME, BRODHEAD, WI, is assisting the family. ♦
